NOTICE

Guru Nanak College, Jhajra, Dehradun is committed to providing a safe and healthy environment for all students, staff, and visitors. In accordance with the Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006, we are pleased to announce the implementation of food safety and hygiene measures across the campus to ensure the well-being of all.

The following steps have been taken to adhere to the Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006, and ensure the highest standards of food safety:

- Certified Food Vendors: All food vendors operating on campus are now required to obtain proper Food Safety License from the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI).
- Hygiene and Cleanliness: Regular inspections will be carried out to ensure that all food stalls, canteens, and food preparation areas maintain the highest levels of cleanliness and sanitation.
- Quality Control: The college has set up a monitoring system to ensure that the ingredients used in food preparation meet safety and quality standards. Regular checks will be conducted for food adulteration and expiry of food products.
- Employee Training: All food handlers will undergo training in food safety and hygiene practices, ensuring that they are aware of the best practices and legal requirements for food handling and preparation.
- Student Awareness: Awareness programs on food safety and healthy eating habits will be conducted regularly for students to promote a safe and healthy campus environment.
- Complaint Redressal Mechanism: A grievance redressal system will be established where students and staff can report any concerns related to food safety. Appropriate actions will be taken promptly.

These measures are in compliance with the Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006, and are intended to provide safe, hygienic, and nutritious food to all members of the college community.
