IMPLEMENTATION OF STUDENT INDUCTION PROGRAMME

Guru Nanak College, Jhajra, Dehradun, organized an induction program for first-year BBA and BCA students. Dr. Lalit Kumar, Principal, and Dr. Bhoopendra Bharati, Head of the Department, extended a warm welcome to the new students and guests, including Mr. Bhupinder Kumar Arora, CEO of Guru Nanak College, along with other members.

The program offered a thorough introduction to the college, presenting its vision, mission, and values to help students grasp its objectives and ambitions. Information about the committed faculty was shared, including department-specific details, to acquaint students with their instructors' expertise.

The college emphasized academic excellence, highlighting its impressive track record from the previous year's results. Alongside academics, a dynamic extracurricular landscape was showcased, featuring annual sports events, a week-long NSS camp fostering social responsibility, ongoing NSS activities, and vibrant fests including IT Fest, Management Fest, Commerce Fest, and Art & Literary Fest.

During his address, Dr. Lalit Kumar explained the key college rules and regulations, while also elaborating on the examination procedures and guidelines.

The induction program ended with a heartfelt vote of thanks, followed by refreshments served to all attendees.
