SKILL DEVELOPMENT COURSES

Guru Nanak College, Jhajra, Dehradun is committed to offering professional development programs, including virtual workshops and experiential, model-based learning. These programs are designed to empower students to develop critical decision-making skills, fostering independence both within the classroom and in real-world scenarios. By integrating Bloom's Taxonomy, our educators aim to cultivate higher-order thinking, progressing from foundational cognitive skills to advanced analytical abilities. Clear behavioral and cognitive learning objectives are provided to demonstrate how Bloom's Taxonomy aligns with broader educational goals and frameworks.

Sincerely

Principal
